2020 EDITION

Incredibly contemporary, Upper Austria
Linz: A city of culture with character

A city as diverse as its people: Linz on the Danube is future-oriented, modern with an exciting history, secluded yet cosmopolitan. Upper Austria’s state capital has character. Those who explore it will make a close friendship. Linz does not show off, not even in its first impressions – this makes it all the more authentic. The Danube alone, which flows through the centre, is a source of strength for residents and visitors. Everyone who scales the Postlingberg using the steepest of adhesion railways gets a good view of Linz and its surroundings. The Ars Electronica Center offers a look into the future, as the artificial intelligence in this centre has already changed our lives. The museums show how diverse the city can be: while the voestalpine Stahlwelt turns the city’s industrial facilities into an experience and the Lentos Art Museum is known for its contemporary collection, the OÖ Kulturquartier has reinvented the beloved “Höhenrausch” event. Also full of colour is the graffiti gallery “Mural Harbor”, located in the harbour, where new highlights are constantly appearing.

At the same time, the roots of the city are exemplified through an entertaining, guided “city walk” through the city centre. The city’s theatres are also located nearby, where emotions run high: while the Brucknerhaus, located right on the Danube, has unique acoustics, the Musiktheater is one of the most modern opera houses in Europe, showing musicals and dance in addition to opera. Linz has many facets which want to be explored. Those who are guests here feel welcome in the lively city centre. This is what defines the comfortable atmosphere, but above all, the people and encounters too. Those who want to experience an interesting city off the beaten track have come to the right place – Linz. Visitors should be somewhat curious, have an interest in special cultural experiences and have the courage to indulge themselves, as a short trip to Linz will result in new experiences and found a friendship that this trip will make unforgettable.

Why Linz?

Tanja Waldhör, Hotel Manager, ibis Styles Linz
“Linz is a city of arriving, feeling good, being at home. And we want our guests at ibis Styles to feel this way as well.”

Eva Hofer, Austria Guide
“The future is so important to us, and Linz takes care of it now. You have to come to Linz to love and understand the city.”

Leonhard Gruber, Mural Harbor
“Linz residents themselves are special, they are more approachable than residents of other state capitals. That was the first thing that struck me here.”

Margit Noé, Donauschiffahrt Wurm & Noé GmbH
“Linz surprises and invites curiosity. Particularly during a harbour cruise, visitors’ perspectives change and, from the Danube, they experience Linz with a completely new outlook, while simultaneously unwinding on the water!”

Tanja Waldhör, Hotel Manager, ibis Styles Linz
“Linz is a city of arriving, feeling good, being at home. And we want our guests at ibis Styles to feel this way as well.”

Andreas Bauer, Ars Electronica Center Director
“Linz is a city big enough to offer a diverse range of activities but is still small enough to meet people anywhere and at anytime. This means partners can quickly be found for new ideas. For the Ars Electronica Center, this means being part of a city that is prepared for new things.”
Dietmar Kerschbaum, LIVA Artistic Board Director
“Linz is a great, diverse city, whose beauties and qualities I have been able to discover in recent years. The Brucknerhaus – one of the most outstanding concert halls in Europe – offers a wide programme in one of the most beautiful places in the city, right on the Danube.”

Chris Müller, Director of development, organisation and artistic agendas, Tabakfabrik Linz
“Although there is the concept of the Bilbao-effect in tourism circles, for me Linz embodies the Belmondo-effect. Linz, once a city of smoking chimneys and today a cosmopolitan, creative metropolis, is defined by its belief in shaping a better future, a beautiful world.”

Genoveva Rückert, OÖ Kulturquartier curator
“Linz may be a small city, but it has an unbelievable generosity. The special thing about it is the people, who are unbelievably open-minded and curious.”

Corinne Wandling, Head baker, K+K Hofbäckerei
“Linz is still original, but is constantly developing. The people in business and hospitality have remained authentic. It makes me proud to help shape the city with K+K Hofbäckerei.”

Hermann Schneider, Intendant Landestheater Linz
“What makes Linz special for me is its great diversity. I enjoy walking down Wiener Straße as much as through the Old Town. I like the rural surroundings and that the city is historical, but is not restricted by tradition.”

EXPERIENCE THE WONDER OF BREAD

Step away from the fast pace of everyday life for a moment and into the PANEUM – the Wunderkammer of Bread. Against a backdrop of unique architecture, you will discover treasures spanning 9,000 years of bread history. Beautiful, like Coco Chanel’s bouquet of wheat sheaves. Bizarre, like the corn mummies from the ancient Egyptian pharaohs’ tombs. Or a special treat that you still remember from childhood. At the end of the one-hour tour of the PANEUM, every visitor receives a free Kornspitz – the original recipe, straight from the inventor.

Free coach parking spaces are located directly in front of the building. The entire exhibition is accessible to all!
ON THE TRAIL OF THE ROMANS

A TRAVEL AND EXCURSION GUIDE INTO THE ROMAN PAST

Embark on a journey of discovery into the exciting past of the ancient sites of Upper Austria and East Bavaria. With the “Römerspuren” app you can hear exciting stories, make long-gone buildings visible again and solve tricky problems. As a reward, a virtual medallion awaits at every Roman location.
The Danube – one of Europe’s greatest storytellers – flows leisurely along, telling tales of times long ago, of powerful rulers and the local inhabitants’ wealth of legends and myths. The Danube knows so many of the stories that have shaped the land and its people since they came into being. There is much to discover in the Upper Austrian section of the river: the Danube traveller enjoys breathtaking views, walks legendary trails, explores the beautiful river landscape on the Danube Cycle Path, experiences the countryside rolling by from a boat and samples culinary delicacies.

DONAU-CULTURE

The great river connecting Europe was and is used primarily as a transport route, not only for the conveyance of people and goods, but also for the exchange of culture and language. By exploring the Roman sites along the Danube, you get an idea of the significance the Danube had for the Romans as the natural border of the Danube limes. When the church was reorganised after the Roman period, numerous monasteries and abbeys were built by the Danube. With the Habsburg Monarchy, the Danube region enjoyed what was surely its most glorious time of prosperity. Empress Sisi, in particular, indulged her love of travelling by taking frequent trips along the Danube and she began her bridal journey by boat from Passau to Vienna.

DANUBE CYCLE PATH

The famous Danube Cycle Path runs along the great river from Germany through Austria and on to Hungary. Cyclists can look forward to a peaceful, romantic and yet varied cycle path from Passau to Grein via Linz along the Upper Austrian section of the Danube. www.donauradweg.at

DONAUSTEIG

Over 450 km and 23 stages, the Donausteig hiking trail runs from Passau to Grein via Linz. On both sides of the Danube, the hiking trail, which was awarded the Austrian Hiking Quality Seal, provides breathtaking views of and perspectives on the great river and the unique landscape through which it flows. www.donausteig.com

DANUBE BOAT TRIP

You can reach the opposite bank in a leisurely manner on board one of the Danube boats. Various stages on the Danube Cycle Path or the Donausteig hiking trail can also be covered by boat.

THE DANUBE BEND AT SCHLÖGEN

The Danube bend at Schlögen is an archetypal meander. Here, the Danube makes two truly spectacular changes in direction. It’s worth stopping and going to the viewpoint on foot. A short walk takes you through the forest, after which you’ll be rewarded with an unobstructed view of this fascinating spectacle of nature.

THE AUGUSTINIAN PRIORY OF ST. FLORIAN
www.stift-st-florian.at

The Augustinian Priory of St. Florian is a place of fellowship and devotion, and, at the same time, a cultural focal point for the region. It was in this ecclesiastical community that Bruckner immersed himself deep in the world of music, first as a choirboy and later as an organist. It was here that he perfected his organ playing and created his first large-scale compositions. And it was here, in the vault beneath the organ, that he found his final resting place.

Bruckner Organ at St. Florian
Master organ builder Franz Xaver Krismann began building the Anton Bruckner Organ in 1770, which has been known as the “Bruckner Organ” since 1932. Over the course of time, it was enlarged and now comprises 4 manuals, 103 stops and 7,386 organ pipes.

Administered by the Jesuits, the Ignatiuskirche or Old Cathedral is famous for its historic Bruckner Organ. It was here at the Old Cathedral that Bruckner obtained his second post as full-time professional organist. Modified in Bruckner’s time according to his own wishes, today the instrument still sounds as it did in his day – which is what makes it so unique.

Its unique location on the Danube, its timelessly exquisite architecture by Finnish architects Heikki and Kaija Siren and above all the excellent acoustics of both of its halls make the Brucknerhaus in Linz, opened by the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra under Herbert von Karajan in 1974, one of the most attractive concert halls in the world.

Each year from 4 September, Anton Bruckner’s birthday, to 11 October, the day of his death, the International Bruckner Festival takes place here in Linz. Leading orchestras and ensembles, celebrated conductors, world stars of opera and top soloists dedicate themselves to the work of Anton Bruckner, but also perform works by other composers, who nevertheless have a connection to Bruckner. All year round the Brucknerhaus Linz offers a diverse programme of classical music, jazz, world music, literature and much more. The 2019/2020 programme is dedicated to the theme of “Heimat” (homeland), a term that can mean many things. Music, too, can be a homeland or at least the medium through which homely feelings and the longing for them can be expressed. This is examined by the Brucknerhaus Linz through their interesting programme.

Franz Welser Möst and the Cleveland Orchestra, Isabelle Faust and Il Giardino Armonico, Markus Poschner and the Bruckner Orchestra Linz, the Saxon State Orchestra of Dresden and the Emerson String Quartet are just a few of the numerous international classical stars that will perform in the Brucknerhaus. For jazz, concerts with Dianne Reeves, Benjamin Schmid, David Murray and many more are the highlights of this season. Particularly popular is the Musical Advent Calendar Musikalischer Adventkalender. This offers the opportunity to enjoy free entry to advent concert evenings and to experience the special atmosphere of the Brucknerhaus.

Encounter Anton Bruckner where he grew up and where he took his first great artistic steps: in St. Florian and Linz.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Linz
With your Austria Guide, you will undertake a walking tour in Anton Bruckner’s footsteps in the Upper Austrian capital. For example, you will get to visit the Bruckner Organ in the Old Cathedral, which the master lovingly called “his organ”. Overnight stay in a good, middle-class hotel in Linz.

On a tour, you will get to know the historic and stately rooms in St. Florian’s priory. A short organ concert on the Bruckner Organ rounds off the trip. At lunch you can enjoy a refreshing two-course lunch in the priory’s cellar.

BRUCKNER ORCHESTER LINZ
www.bruckner-orchester.at

The Bruckner Orchestra Linz, which can look back on a history spanning over 200 years, has become one of Central Europe's leading ensembles in recent decades. With its 130 musicians, it is not only Upper Austria's symphony orchestra, as it also serves the musical productions of the Landestheater Linz. As an ambassador for the state of Upper Austria, the BOL regularly undertakes national and international concert trips. Since 2017, Markus Poschner has been the head conductor of the Bruckner Orchestra Linz. Under his leadership, the BOL has developed a completely unique way of playing its namesake's music and performs this in a distinctive, Upper Austrian sound dialect.

NULLEINS
Nulleins means the beginning. Nulleins means the big bang. Nulleins means the very first concert in the Bruckner Orchestra's first own concert series. Nulleins is a programmatic and numerical dedication to Anton Bruckner's first symphonies. Come along and allow yourself to be surprised, as all magic has its own beginning – and incidentally, this one is quite special. Nulleins means magic.

Sunday 26 January, 4 pm, Brucknerhaus Linz

MISSA UNIVERSALIS
In the second concert of their own series, the Brucknerhaus Orchestra turns to a Linz legend which can be safely named as one of the innovators of our region. To give it a name: it's the Linz rock band Eela Craig, which was founded exactly 50 years ago. The avant-garde power of their music was internationally celebrated and peaked in 1978 with "Missa Universalis".

The Linzer Kellertheater is now in its 66th theatre season and is continuing on its path as an enduring theatrical venue for successful popular comedies. It is still the theatre’s aim to offer public entertainment of the highest standard. The “BOEING BOEING restarted” comedy is guaranteed to provide just that. Hauptplatz 21 is, and will remain, a place where comedy thrives.

For a younger audience, productions of classic fairy tales are always in the programme: this season, it’s “The Town Musicians of Bremen” by the Grimm brothers. With almost 100 seats and a glass-roofed inner courtyard, the theatre can also be exclusively booked for groups – special performances followed by catering are particularly ideal here. The premises are an extraordinary and charming location for company or birthday celebrations.

VOESTALPINE STAHLWELT
www.voestalpine.com/stahlwelt

Exciting world of experiences

voestalpine Stahlwelt allows a glimpse behind the scenes of voestalpine. In exciting guided tours, the guides convey background knowledge about steel, its production, processing and its various possible applications. Visitors will learn how car bodywork is made, about the secrets behind ordinary-seeming razor blades and how high-speed railway tracks can be up to 120 m long. On the child-friendly family tours, the content is made particularly exciting for younger visitors. Multimedia guides are available for individual visitors.

Tour of the plant

After the tour, you will head out in multi-media buses onto the 5 km² voestalpine factory premises and get up close and personal with the most modern plant in the world of steel. This enables visitors to experience the production plants for themselves as they come to the blast furnace, hot rolling mill or Automotive Components. A tour of the plant is only possible as part of a guided tour. From Monday to Saturday, individual visitors are able to join a group tour, as long as there are still places available on the pre-booked guided tours.

Extraordinary architecture

Even the architecture of the voestalpine Stahlwert is definitely worth seeing. The building is reminiscent of a periscope and opens up a unique perspective on the voestalpine factory premises. Over five floors, the architecture will particularly astound you with its alternation between various different spaces, opening up a multifaceted world of adventure.

Stahlwelt Lounge

Your physical well-being is taken care of in the Stahlwelt Lounge on the ground floor. Visitors can enjoy drinks and small snacks here after the guided tour. Packages for groups can also be organised with advance booking. You can get more information on this by telephone from our Visitors’ Service at +43 50304 15-8900.

“One step ahead” is voestalpine’s motto and philosophy. With this museum, the corporation takes a look back – into its own history – and thereby carefully and extensively explores the dark chapter of its early years. voestalpine is doing this out of responsibility for its own history and in the knowledge that only those who confront their pasts can also look towards the future. The museum is dedicated to the forced labourers who were made to work by the Nazis in Linz for the “Reichswerke Hermann Göring AG Berlin”. It stands for responsible interaction with the corporation’s history and critically confronts this dark chapter of Austria’s past.

LINZ REGION: KIRCHSCHLAG

Linz’s sun terrace

Once celebrated by Aldabert Stifter, the fine, fog-free mountain air and the beautiful location close to forests with a magical panoramic view are thoroughly appreciated by many visitors looking for sun and fresh air. On clear days, the 22 metre-high observation point of Breitenstein, located 955 metres above sea-level, offers a glorious panorama from the dark edge of the Bohemian forest to the silver summits of the Alps. The always surprisingly good and long-lasting snow conditions in winter and the heavenly peace in summer make Kirchschlag an attractive excursion destination and winter sports resort, close to the city.

Whether a leisurely country outing or wild adventurousness – Kirchschlag offers it all.

Adalbert Stifter in Kirchschlag – Metz-Villa
Kirchschlag, in Mühlviertel, was the second most important resort for Adalbert Stifter after Lackenhäuser, Bavaria, as he had close connections there during the last three years of his life. Stifter was often invited to the villa, built in 1861, as a guest by his friend, builder Johann Metz, who had also built the Stifter residence in Linz. In 2004, the Metz-Villa was purchased by the municipality of Kirchschlag and has served as a multipurpose centre since 2018.

St. Anna Kirche
The St. Anna church on the Kirchschlag village square became a place of pilgrimage early on. Completely destroyed by a fire in 1692, the church has been renovated several times over the centuries and equipped with beautiful, stylish holy figurines and paintings.
Experience the adventure of archery at Europe's largest archery centre in the heart of Mühlviertel: around the archery centre there are four facilities with a total of 100 3D stations and over 300 animal targets. Beginners to professionals can find challenges for them on the varied, demanding courses, on the hunt with bow and arrow in the beautiful nature.

Feel the passion – Team Experience Event
After guests have been received with a typical Mühlviertel welcome drink and a short introduction, they are split into small teams. Every participant is equipped with suitable archery equipment, followed by a technique and safety briefing.
Now it’s on! With three arrows, every shooter tries to achieve the highest score for their team. Once all teams have finished, the final shoot takes place to determine the best team. Finally, the prize giving takes place. On the winning team, each member receives a prize of an archery experience day for two people.

Event package prices:
Feel the passion – Light: private event area, welcome drink, equipment € 295 (up to 10 participants); from 10 people € 29.50 p. p.
Feel the passion – Classic: Light package with additional drinks du-

Drivers who would rather use the mainly straight main roads should stay on the road 126 after the signposted turn-off for about another 6 kilometres, past the Wildberg ruins to Glasau. The exit to the left leads directly to Kirchschlag, 3 kilometres on Bezirkstraße.
